Agenda

- The Administration's Role
- The New Space
- The Future of the Committee
- Archiving
- Updates

Notes

- We need to make decisions and be as decisive as we can tonight
- Putting out our voices

- The Administration's Role
 - What is the fate of the old Perry House? What does the timeline look like? What will happen to the land? Who makes that call?
 - The old house will be demolished, we thought that would be the fate from the beginning
 - An investment of $2 million would have been needed to renovate the house
 - Other houses on campus, e.g. Cartref, West House, will probably in the same place as Perry
 - Will probably be torn down sometime in July
 - Permit needs to be obtained
 - Make sure that all the hazardous material is removed before the house is torn down
 - There's no floor in the building now
 - Senior Staff makes the call (about the house being torn down)
 - Make sure people are on board or have any other ideas
 - What will happen to the grounds?
 - It will probably become grass
 - The neighbors would probably have objected to renovate the building for other purposes
 - Don't expect that they will ever build anything on that space
 - If we did build something someday it would probably be closer to New Gulph road
 - How can or should the administration/college help in establishing Perry House as a cultural center?
 - Where is the question coming from?
 - Admin/College acknowledging that real work happens there
 - Not just a gathering space
 - Respecting the space and official acknowledgement
 - Respecting the significance
 - Whether is it reactive or proactive
 - Intellectual and residential life on the campus
 - Respecting that Perry is important to our community
 - Financial backing/support?
 - Dean Balthazar has requested some funding for next fiscal year
 - Some additional funding has been requested
 - Budgeting has to get passed by Board of Trustees at the April 25, 2015 meeting
 - Sustained funding
 - What should that process look like?
 - Where should that money reside?
 - Complete onus of trying to figure out where to get money should not be dependent upon the students

- Is it Angie Sheets and ResLife?
 - Is it the Pensby Center
- How to maintain the cultural center
 - In terms of having social events and how to take care of the elements that make them a cultural center
 - Like the space to be treated and respected as a cultural center versus a social center
 - e.g. having a party in the same space as lecture hall
 - there will be tension between it being a residential space and a public space
 - what is the impact going to be on the people that are living there?
 - e.g. the noise traveling
 - open space
 - Hours of operation
 - Special Collections
 - Concerns about humidity, light, length that they can be displayed, what can be brought into Perry House
 - Metal and stone objects easier to display
 - Cost of cases
- Naming the Space
 - Africana faculty talked about this
 - They are in unison about a name
 - Jessie Redmon Fauset House
 - to give her a space she was deprived of
 - important in the Harlem Renaissance
 - novelist
 - exclusion/inclusion
 - celebrating culture
 - If everyone in this room is on board with this, do we need to present it to the President's Cabinet?
 - Would check in with Kim
 - Who do you need to get permission from to name a building after someone?
 - Ask her estate (Professor Beard researching this)
 - Nostalgia for the name of Perry
 - nostalgia about what happened there vs the name
 - Alum Perspective?
 - People are referring to Perry as Perry 2
 - Name hasn't really been discussed or posed to the BALC because of other events such as the walkthrough
 - Admissions & Tours
 - What would introducing Perry House in a tour look like?
 - Acknowledging the good and bad of BMC's history

- BMC messed up but this is how we're working through it
- Who gets to decide who lives there in the future?
- Who is the cultural center for?
 - Africana has some strong notions about who the space is for
 - Africana are all isolated in different departments
 - Same goes for LALIPC
 - People counting on this space being an anchor
 - Perry House as a place for people to get a particular type of education
 - A learning opportunity and intellectual space for a campus that is very far behind in its learning for things outside of Europe
 - Being intentional about using the phrase cultural center and the implications of that culture, while recognizing that we are primarily representing 2 diasporas
 - Tension of exploratory learning bordering on intrusiveness
 - Not just a space for people to chill with their friends
 - e.g. the library isn't your alternative Canaday or Carpenter
 - Come into the space (the cultural center space) with purpose
 - this is a place to engage
 - students (general Bryn Mawr community members) have been asking if they will have access to the building, but if they do will they use it?
 - Open House
 - There is a physical space but the community is really in the people
 - Who admin, faculty, students, etc base how they view the space is based off of how they interact with smaller people
- The Future of the Committee
 - Vanessa is still okay with being convener of this group, but is aware of how the committee should move forward
- Archiving
- Updates/Moving Forward
 - Smaller working group to come to Communications/Launch meeting to help plan and prep for May 2, event.

Building Updates from Joseph Marra

- The flooring from old Perry will be included in the library of the new building
